NEW JERSEY DIVISION OF MOTOR VEHICLES SUSPENDS THE SEVENTH AMENDMENT

The Seventh Amendment of the Bill of Rights states: "In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved..."

The soon to be infamous N.J. Senate bill #1700, which concerns "motor vehicle inspection and registration," states on page 18, line: 28 through 45, that anyone who fails to "have a motor vehicle examined"...or, "fails or refuses to place the motor vehicle in proper condition," etc., etc., faces a fine "of not more than $200.00...and/or imprisonment for not less than 30 days." (Second offence)

These penalties certainly exceed the "$20.00" specified in the Seventh Amendment. But, on page 19, line 14, S1700 states: "The hearing in any such proceeding shall be without a jury."

Will Richard Kamin, Director of N.J.D.M.V., refuse to enforce an unconstitutional law upon his fellow citizens? Will he raise his voice in righteous indignation and denounce the legislators in Trenton who passed S1700, and Governor "Czarina" Whitman who signed it? The answer is, of course, no. Mr. Kamin has been on various radio talk shows in N.J. denying that many of the laws contained in S1700 exist, despite the fact that many N.J. citizens have copies of S1700 and are quoting page and line number to him over the phone.

On November 17th., 1994, Mr. Kamin spoke to a private meeting on various issues in Linden, N.J. When someone at the meeting remarked that if S1700 was fully enforced there would be rioting in the streets, Mr. Kamin remarked: "That's why they took your guns away first."

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

HANDGUN CONTROL, INC., AND NRA JOIN FORCES TO PASS GUN LAW IN PENNSYLVANIA

Handgun Control, Inc. released a jubilant fax from their Washington D.C. office revealing the following information:

"Pennsylvania has taken an important step forward in the fight to reduce gun violence. Passage of the Fumo/Heckler Firearms Act will keep guns out of the wrong hands. Pennsylvania now has one of the most comprehensive list of prohibitions on purchase, sale, transfer or possession of guns in the country. The legislation imposes accountability on anyone who profits from selling firearms. The bill also requires those who want to sell their own personal gun to do so on the premises of a firearm dealer or local Sheriff's office, and a background check must be conducted...regulating the private sale of handguns has long been a priority goal of Handgun Control, Inc.

Handgun Control, Inc. participated on the commission that drafted this landmark piece of legislation. Senator Fumo deserves credit for getting this bill written and passed---especially in Pennsylvania which has a tradition of opposing any gun control law. This was the first time Handgun Control, Inc. has worked with Senator Fumo who is a member of the N.R.A. We certainly appreciate his legislative abilities in getting this bill to the Governor's desk.

This bill also marked the first time in a very long time that Handgun Control, Inc., and the National Rifle Association agreed on a piece of legislation that controlled access to firearms. The regulation of private sales, limiting the types of persons who can purchase guns and stricter provisions for dealers are all things the NRA has vehemently opposed in the past. This appears to be a shift in the NRA's no compromise approach to gun control.

Although neither side got everything it wanted, considerable progress was made towards a safer Pennsylvania. We look forward to working together to enact true public safety legislation in other states."

THE ROOTS OF OUR ECONOMIC PROBLEM

According to the U.S. Constitution, Article One, Sec. 8, Congress shall have the power : To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures:

Rising debts and increasing bankruptcies are the result of Congress suspending the free coinage of metals -into money- and switching us to bank credits as our medium of exchange. These acts converted our nation from a wealth monetary system, where people created money for society's benefit through the fruits of their labor, to a monetary system, where now all new money is loaned into circulation as an interest-bearing debt. Since this system only creates the principal and never the interest, the debt is always greater than the money supply. This fraudulently created debt forces American citizens to borrow constantly so the system can function. Eventually, the process becomes unworkable as society, mortgaged to the hilt, can no longer afford to borrow. This debt creates extreme stress for us as we struggle to meet impossible financial obligations. The results are: a constantly rising cost-of-living, layoffs, family breakdown, increased drug and alcohol use, an increase in crime and a general moral breakdown.

THE THIRD CAPTAIN

There is a story in the Old Testament that should be studied and understood by all law enforcement and military personnel who operate under the auspices of local, state or federal governments.

When Ahaziah, king of Israel, was taken ill, he sent messengers to inquire of Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, whether he would recover. The messengers were met by Elijah the prophet, who told them to return to the ailing king with the message that because Ahaziah sought the god of Ekron, and not the God of Israel, he would surely die upon his bed.

The king, not pleased with Elijah's prophecy, sent a captain with 50 of his men to place Elijah under arrest::

Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him, and, behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spake unto him, "Thou man of God, the king hath said, come down."

And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty." And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

Undeterred, King Ahaziah sent another captain with his 50 men to arrest Elijah:

Again also he sent unto him another captain with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, "O man of God, thus hath the king said, come down quickly."

And Elijah answered and said unto them, "If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty. II Kings 1:9-12

The most spectacular and gruesome deaths every recorded in the Old Testament happened to 102 police officers. They were, no doubt, no better or worse that the average officer of today. They were just "following orders", just, "doing their job". Yet, because they were following the orders of a reprobate political leader, God's judgment fell on them as it would king Ahaziah.

Why did God's vengeance fall on these 102 officers? Even a cursory examination of Scripture will reveal that the God of the Bible is a God of covenants. The Bible is basically a chronicle of a covenant that God made with a man named Abraham and his descendants. In fact, all major dealings between God and man have come about through covenants.

Covenant-breaking is a serious offense, condemned by the Apostle Paul in the first chapter of Romans, saying it was worthy of death, ("divine vengeance" in the original Greek.)

King Ahaziah, by his actions, exalted himself above the covenant that God made with His people, much the same way some of our politicians have exalted themselves above the covenant that was established between "We, the People" and our federal government : The U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

If elected officials choose to breach their oath of office and infringe upon our constitutional rights, usually through unconstitutional laws, and use of law enforcement personnel (or military) to enforce those illegal laws, those officers will, according to II Kings 1:9-12, place themselves on equal footing with those who make the laws. The 102 police officers barbecued on the side of a hill give testimony to that fact. The greatest prophet in the Old Testament was also the greatest cop-killer in history. All because they were trying to enforce "bad law". Law that violated and exceeded God's covenant.

King Ahaziah, still undeterred, sent a third captain to arrest Elijah.

And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of the fifty went up, and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, "O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants , be precious in thy sight."

Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life be precious in thy sight."

And the angle of the Lord said unto Elijah, "Go down with him: and be not afraid." And he arose and went down with him unto the king.

II Kings 1:13-15

The third captain, standing knee-deep in freshly charred corpses, understood where political authority ended and where covenant (constitutional for us) authority began. The third captain knew that his "political leader" had exceeded his authority. What saved the third captain was that he refused to carry-out an "executive order" and placed himself and his men under Elijah's authority---note where he said , "thy servants".

How many police and military personnel maintain this attitude towards "We, the People", the Constitution, and our federal government today? Spc. Michael New, who refused to swear an oath to the U.N. after swearing an oath to the Constitution is one. He may spend time in Leavenworth for his actions, but he'll never meet the fate of the first two captains, his commanding officers, maybe, but not he.

A broken covenant is treasonous no matter how high minded or noble it may appear on the surface. And those who enforce unconstitutional laws are as guilty as those who legislate them. A crime disguised as law is still a crime.

There is no middle ground for police and military personnel on this issue, they must choose sides and cast their lots. They will either join the 102, or the third captain.

"hell hole", and even the Governor wants to close it down. The State Police issued a scathing 42 page report regarding the abuses the Marlboro staff inflicts on the poor souls being held there. Despite all this, the corrupt officials of the Federal and State government refuse to do anything or to release my son.

The state has not allowed me to see or speak to my son for six years. I have tried to write to my son, but I have been told the state seizes the letters and his mail. My son wrote me heartbreaking letters begging me to get him out of Marlboro, and telling me he misses me and wants to come home. Unfortunately, there is nothing I can do because I cannot afford an attorney to file papers in the U.S. District Court (or any other appropriate court) to get my boy out. I was told a writ of habeas corpus needs to be filed. I have the forms, sent to me by the U.S. District Court, but I need help in preparing them. If NJM or any of your readers or members will help me, I will be deeply appreciative of any assistance you can give me.

Very sincerely,

A STANDING ARMY THE BANE OF LIBERTY

"What, sir, is the use of a militia? It is to prevent the establishment of a standing army, the bane of liberty."--Rep. Eldbridge Gerry of Massachusetts, I Annals of Congress at 750 (August 17, 1789)

Slow Boat to China. Pres. Bill Clinton and Japanese Prime Minister Tomiichi Murayama are expected to sign a new five-year Status of Forces Agreement that will enable Japan to use U.S. airlift and sealift capabilities when it deploys its troops in U.N. peacekeeping operations. Japan in turn will provide more than 70% of the cost of keeping U.S. troops in Japan.--Defense News, Sept. 25-Oct. 1, 1995--NJM: U.S. forces in Japan are in danger of becoming the Hesssian mercenaries of the 21st Century, while Japanese forces will be deployed elsewhere. Given that the Japanese have collected millions of signatures urging that the American people be disarmed might not the U.N. ask that they assist in that task?

Identity Crisis. In January, 1994, the NATO military high command in Mons, Belgium, announced the formation of the Combined Joint Task Forces headquarters whose purpose is to allow Europe to "affirm its identity" by sending NATO forces outside its area during "peacekeeping and crisis situations" when the U.S. or Canada does not wish to participate. The 16 NATO allies are working o the CJTF structure now.--Defense News, Oct. 2-10, 1995--NJM: the Europeans are among the world's premier imperialists. Will they "affirm their identity" by intervening in their former American colonies, in violation of the Monroe Doctrine? And, if so, will our supine government permit them to use U.S equipment stored in Europe for NATO operations?

Cooperative Challenge. NATO and the eastern and central European states formerly under the control of the Soviet Union (the so-called Partnership for Peace states) have launched their first major command post exercise. Six hundred troops from "more than a dozen countries" were brought together in the Czech Republic to train a multinational, brigade-level staff to support a U.N.. "peacekeeping mission". The exercise is code-named Cooperative Challenge.--Defense News, Oct. 2-10, 1995--NJM: a brigade is a 5.000 man force consisting of infantry, artillery and attack helicopters. In view of the fact that the U.N. may call upon the U.S. to transport Japanese forces by air (see above) would not the Administration train our forces for that role? Since one of our strategic airlift bases is at McGuire AFB, home of the 21st Air Force, and since it would be cheaper to train the 21st by flying to Europe rather than Japan, wouldn't it be a cooperative challenge to have Japanese surrogates such as NATO's CJTF forces or the PfP brigade "affirm their identity" by deploying to Ft. Dix?

Editor: are we paranoid or what? We know that none of these news items could ever affect us, just as Americans in 1913 knew that "they'd never" raise the income tax above 2%; that in 1940 "they'd never" extend the draft beyond the one year promised; that in 1943 "they'd never" withhold taxes from paychecks beyond the end of the war. And of course people of our generation knew that "they'd never" pass the Gun Control Act of 1968, the Brady Bill or the Omnibus Crime Bill. But more than that, standing armies were only a "bane to liberty" in the backward 18th Century; they'd never be turned against the people in our enlightened age.

HELP SENATOR SPECTOR IDENTIFY THE MILITIA

Media Bypass Magazine (Sept. 1995) ran a humorous article about Arlen Specter, when he asked several Militia leaders to provide the names of every Militia member in the United States.

Mr. Specter obviously never read United States Code, Title 10, Section 311. Which states:

Militia: composition and classes

(a) The militia of the United States consists of all able-bodied males at least 17 years of age and, except as provided in section 313 of title 32, under 45 years of age who are, or who have made a declaration of intention of become, citizens of the United States and of female citizens of the United States who are commissioned officers of the National Guard.

(b) The classes of the militia are---

(1) the organized militia, which consists of the National Guard and the Naval Militia;
and
(2) the unorganized militia, which consists of members of the militia who are not members of the National Guard or the Naval Militia.

Media Bypass Magazine suggested that everyone send Mr. Spector a copy of their local phone directory. The number of people that are in the unorganized Militia (whether they know it or not) run into the ten's of millions.

PATRIOT QUIZ

Can you translate the following Senate Bill?:

"The rate of pay for the officers referred to under section 703 (a) (2) (b) of the Ethics Reform Act of 1989 (5 U.S.C. 5218 note) shall be the rate of pay that would be payable for each such office if the provisions of section 703 (a) (2) (b) and 1011 (a) (1) (A) of such act (5 U.S.C. 5318 note and 5305) had not been enacted."

Give up? Translation: Senators voted themselves a $23,200-a-year pay raise. Orwillian "Newspeak" is alive and well in Washington.

THE FIRST PRAYER OF CONGRESS

"The First Prayer of Congress" was offered by the Rev. Jacob Duche before the First Continental Congress, on September 7, 1774, in the presence of the most illustrious of the Founding Fathers. This prayer is a classic example of the trust in Divine Providence which characterized early American history.

"O Lord our Heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, and Lord of lords, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers on earth and reignest with power supreme and uncontrolled over the Kingdoms, Empires, and Governments; look down in mercy, we beseech thee, on these our American States, who have fled to Thee from the rod of the oppressor, and thrown themselves on Thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth dependent only on Thee, to Thee have they appealed for the righteousness of their cause; to Thee do they now look up for that countenance and support, which Thou alone canst give; take them, therefore, Heavenly Father, under Thy nurturing care; give them council in wisdom and valor in the field; defeat the malicious designs of our cruel adversaries; convince them of the unrighteousness of their cause; and if they persist in their sanguinary purposes, O! let the voice of Thine own unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war, from their unnerved hands in the day of battle! Be Thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation. That the scene of blood may be speedily closed; that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish amongst Thy people. Preserve the health of their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them and the millions they here represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world, and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and through the merits of Jesus Christ, Thy Son and our Savior."

A few patriots brave the rain to protest U.S. involvement with the U.N. in front of McGuire Air Force Base on Saturday, October 21, 1995.

"IN THE BEGINNING OF CHANGE, THE PATRIOT IS A SCARCE MAN; BRAVE, HATED AND SCORNED. WHEN HIS CAUSE SUCCEEDS, HOWEVER, THE TIMID JOIN HIM, FOR THEN IT COSTS NOTHING TO BE A PATRIOT."
